A Band of Horse Thieves Shot Down.

LITTLE ROCK, May 23.—A band of vigilants have been chasing eight horse thieves in Missouri for over two weeks. Three were captured near Kirbyville and lynched, and the other five escaped, but one has since been killed, one mortally shot, the third captured and in jail. The other two are now hemmed in on White river and will be captured to-day and lynched.

Snow Storm in Iowa.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., May 23.—The second snow storm of the spring occurred last night between twelve and one o'clock. The weather at the same time then grew clear and cold, and caused another heavy frost doing a great deal of damage. Small fruits are mostly ruined, and other damage is feared.

AT DAVENPORT.

DAVENPORT, Ia., May 23.—At two o'clock this morning, a heavy snow storm set in here and continued for four and one half hours. Fully three inches of snow fell, but at daylight only about an inch was on the ground because of the melting. No such storm is remembered as having occurred here before. The nearest to it was on the 7th of May, 1846, when about the same kind of a storm prevailed. The frost yesterday morning did much damage to vegetables and small fruit in this region.

Poisonous Wall Paper.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

BOSTON, May 23.—Two cases of arsenical poisoning by sleeping in a room newly papered, in a house on Pearl street, Cambridgeport, have come to light. The first is that of a Mr. Squire, who retired to his room in his usual state of health, but before morning became exceedingly ill, and was subjected to severe vomiting and purging. Next night another person occupied the same room, and the same kind of illness resulted. Attention was then drawn to the wall paper. A portion was removed and given to Medical Examiner Holt, who submitted it to a chemist, and upon its analysis, the presence of arsenic was detected. A statement of the facts was made to the firm in this city who sold the paper, but the members thereof indignantly repudiate the story that the goods contain arsenic.

McMillan, of the Chicago and Alton has refused to accept a place on the board of railroad arbitration which it is proposed to make to take the place of the commissioner when Mr. Fink retires from that office.

Hon. Elihu Reichelderfer, who once more or less creditably represented this county in the legislature, is in the city. Elihu is rather down on his luck. His wife has left him and he got into some trouble at Garrett City, where he has worn the ermine of a justice of the peace. He will remove his residence to the virtuous city of Chicago shortly.

It is to be hoped that the council will not to-night see fit to reduce the salaries of the city officers who have so faithfully served. There is talk of cutting the salary of the health officer. We do not think it advisable to do this, as his duties may any day be increased tenfold.

WHAT'S the matter with the republican party in Pennsylvania?

THE republicans of Texas have organized themselves into a Know Nothing society and have been chartered by the parent society at Washington.

IT is a cold day in Washington when an indictment is not returned against some government officer or other. It keeps the republican statesmen quite busy hunting bail.

THE selection of August 2, as the date on which to hold the democratic state convention, indicates that the democrats are anxious for the fray and propose to make the campaign an aggressive one.

THE courts of Pennsylvania have just squelched fifty eight graveyard insurance companies. There are about 200 more of these dishonest institutions in the state, and they will be attended to.

A LAWYER in Bangor, Me, has brought suit for $5,900 damages against the publisher of a history of Penobscott county, which reported him as dead and gave him a complimentary obituary sketch.

YESTERDAY James Gordon Bennett purchased the real estate which formerly belonged to his father. The property was disposed of at partition sale and was purchased by Mr. Bennett for the sum of $1,361 000.

FROM the fact that the court in banc has affirmed the decision in Guiteau's case, it is safe to presume that the assassin will be brought into closer relationship with the celestial spirit in whom he places so much confidence.

THOMAS F. MARSHALL, recently nominated for congressman at large by the Pennsylvania stalwarts, has kicked out of the traces and declined the mock honor. Mr. Marshall prefers death with the independent republicans, rather than success with the stalwarts

DANIEL RILEY, a farmer living a short distance from Decatur, is under arrest for attempting to murder his wife. She took refuge in a neighbor's house, where he followed and broke in the door with an ax. The neighbor fired two shots at him, both failing to take effect.

A FELLOW died in a San Francisco hospital recently. Just previous to his demise he said that Prince Napoleon was not killed by the Zulus, but by Nihilists ordered to do so by the Paris commune. The deceased gentlemen was in the English army under Napoleon

WHEN a man appears on the streets of Dublin with a scratch on his nose and a grease spot on his trousers, he is immediately gobbled up by a shrewd detective and lodged in prison on suspicion of being one of the Phœnix Park assassins. Such men are generally released next day.

A BACHELOR named Tait, residing near Wabash, has for many years declined to dispose of any of the wheat produced on his farm, believing that a famine will visit the land in the distant future, and that he will need every pound of his wheat to supply the wants of the family he expects to have by that time.

IN a speech to a meeting of Irishmen at Manchester Sunday, Michael Davitt disclaimed all sympathy with the recent Phœnix Park murders and declared that there could be no alliance between English Whigs and Irishmen until landlordism in Ireland was abolished. Davitt's plan for restoring peace and good order and suppressing crime in Ireland is for Gladstone to remove landlordism, military, and police, sweep away Dublin Castle, and show toward Ireland the same confidence in its capacity for self government that is shown toward Canada.

SIX hundred employes have been dismissed from the wholesale departments of A. T. Stewart & Co., in New York city, and the wholesale business will be finished by July 1. The retail store will not be shut up for six months yet, probably, although great efforts are being made to get rid of the goods. It is said that the big marble building at Tenth street and Broadway will be turned into a museum, but this is not generally believed. It is still commonly thought that Judge Hilton has lost money in the store, notwithstanding that he denies it.

THE state superintendent of public instruction yesterday afternoon completed the summing up of the school enumeration of the various counties, together with the school revenues. The following are the totals: School children in the state, 700,424; amount derived from tax, $787,894 32; interest collected on common school fund since last apportionment, $104,189 09; amount derived from unclaimed fees, $810 86; total amount reported by counties ready for apportionment, $892 894 27. The enumeration of 1881 showed 714,223 school children in the state. The decrease in the number for 1882, the superintendent attributes to the more reliable plan of making the enumeration this year than heretofore. Neither the state tax nor the interest is so large as a year ago, showing the valuation to be less.

A New Principle.

The principle upon which Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor acts is entirely new. It does not sink deep into the flesh, thereby producing soreness, but acts directly upon the external covering of the corn, separates it from the under layer, removes the direct pressure from the part, and at once effects a radical cure, without any pain or discomfort. Let those who are suffering from corns, yet skeptical of treatment, try it, and by the completeness of the cure they will be ready to recommend Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor to others. Thousands of ladies to-day cherish grateful remembrance of the help derived from the use of Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It positively cures all female complaints. Send to Mrs Lydia E Pinkham, 233 Western Avanue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

Young women read with ill conceived envy that a Kansas widow has just come back from the funeral of her sixth husband.

Advice to Consumptives.

On the appearance of the first symptoms—as general debility, loss of appetite, pallor, chilly sensations, followed by night-sweats and cough—prompt measures for relief should be taken. Consumption is scrofulous disease of the lungs:—therefore use the great anti-scrofulous, or blood-purifier and strength restorer,—Dr Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." Superior to cod liver oil as a nutritive, and unsurpassed as a pectoral. For weak lungs, spitting of blood, and kindred affections, it has no equal. Sold by druggists the world over. For Dr. Pierce's pamphlet on Consumption, send two stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Forty Year's Experience of an Old Nurse.

Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhœa, griping in the bowels and wind-colic. By giving health to the child, it rests the mother. Price, 25 cents a bottle.

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist minister, and before I even thought of being a clergyman, I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative position for my present profession, forty years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy; "Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me" I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria and "Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them," and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the oil out of the spoon into the head by sniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice that twice a week, I dont care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. For deafness and earache it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eclectric Oil. DR. E F. CRANE, Corry, Pa.

"Where would we be without women?" asks a writer. It's hard to determine just which way the majority would drift, but some men would be out of debt and out of trouble, and a good many others would be out at their elbows.

Dr Stemen has shown to a SENTINEL reporter a heap of anonymous letters emanating from a malicious enemy who, for years, has sought to drag him down by this dishonorable means. The doctor says that the postoffice officials have suppressed hundreds of pounds of grossly libelous matter referring to him. The doctor's righteous indignation is stirred up and he will no longer tamely submit to abuse and contumely.

Pastor Passavant, of Pittsburg, to superintend the construction of two large Lutheran hospitals to be built under the auspices of the denomination in Chicago and Milwaukee. Bell and will endeavor to secure an injunction.

A BLEEDING ROW

Indulged in by a Husband and Wife, Both Being Under the Influence of Bad Budge.

Wm. Student and wife live near the St. Mary's river bridge in Nebraska. They are credited by their neighbors with the reputation of being a hard pair, and, last night before dark, were participants in a scene of commotion which quite beggars description.

It appears that Student, who is an elderly man, and works occasionally at odd jobs, such as well digging, ditching, etc., has a wife who, while not young or comely, is, nevertheless, inclined to be frisky, if neighborhood report is at all credited. It is alleged by the Nebraska gossips that, while Student is away at work, his spouse is generally entertaining one of the gang, who eat the old man's provender, drink his beer and hug his wife. This was, of course, all right, so long as it was kept on the sly, but some one gave Student a pointer and he came home last night before dark, in time to see the coat tail of a young man issuing from the door of his humble cottage. The outraged husband entered and found his wife unmistakably drunk. So paralyzed was the old lady that she lay on the bed, her clothing disarranged and she was unable to say anything intelligible. Student had also been drinking and struck the woman a brutal blow in the face, which aroused her, and with Amazonian strength she sailed into him, and it is said gave him as thorough a drubbing as one would wish to see. The fellow's face was covered with blood, resulting from the scratches and bites inflicted thereon by his wife's teeth and finger nails. Several neighbors ran in, attracted by the noise in time to see them rolling about the floor locked in a vicious embrace, the furniture broken, and the scene a first class Pandemonium.

It is said that Student, who received decidedly the worst of the encounter will obtain a divorce from his muscular help-meet.

A $25,000 Suit.

Yesterday, Mr. C. A. Davis, press agent of Batcheller & Doris' circus, and Mr Joseph Smith, manager of Millie Christine, "The Two Headed Lady," the principal attraction of the show, visited the law office of Robertson & Harper, and the result was that it was decided to bring suit against Adam Forepaugh, the circus proprietor, for $25,000 civil damages on account of certain alleged false and libelous publications authorized by him, printed on handbills and strewn about the streets of Toledo and this city several days before the arrival of Batcheller & Doris' show. The alleged libel refers to the "Two Headed" as a "negro monstrosity" and advises all women, children and Christian people that they cannot with decency look on this "hideous malformation."

Colonel Robertson yesterday informed a reporter of this paper that the papers were not yet drawn in the suit, but would be filed in the United States court within a few days.

The Golden-Fry Nuptials.

At the Cathedral this morning occurred the marriage of Miss Lizzie Fry to Anthony Golden. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Boeckleman in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The attendants were Miss Mary Golden, sister of the groom, and Mr. George Fry, brother of the bride. The bride and bridesmaid were handsomely and tastly attired, while the groom and groomsman looked well in conventional black. At the conclusion of the marriage ceremony mass was celebrated. Owing to the illness of the bride's father, Mr. Jacob Fry, no reception will be held. Mr. and Mrs. Golden will shortly begin housekeeping on Washington street. Notwithstanding the postponement of the reception a large number of elegant and costly presents were received.

The Fort Wayne Commandery, Knights Templar, are making preparations for their trip to Warsaw next Thursday. The commandery will march from their hall to the depot in full regalia, headed by the drum corps, in the morning, and board the excursion train which leaves the city for the village of the lakes at 8:30 arriving at Warsaw at 10 o'clock. The train will return to this city at 8:30 in the evening.

Fishing parties are flocking to Pleasant Lake this week. The following persons from Bluffton, passed through the city this morning on their way to this favorite resort: Hon. Levi Mock, Jacob Tribolet, John Hoover, Anthony Sumner, Morris Bachelor, Benedict Burns, Dr. C. T. Melsheimer, Jeffrey Bliss.

Last night, a SENTINEL reporter observed with interest Col. Lukens' admirable drilling of the M. E. college cadets. The young men are getting the tactics down fine, and have a very soldierly bearing. They make their first public parade on Decoration Day.

John Piscatorial Hance was mistaken this morning for the advance agent of Buffalo Bill. He had on a new fishing suit with a broad brimmed sombrero. John shou'd not so suddenly spring these surprises upon us.

August Sasper saw fit to provoke a female named Louisa Griner. For this ungallant conduct, Sasper was this morning fined $1 and costs by Ryan, J. P., and went to jail.

Virtue Acknowledged.

Mrs. Ira Mulholland. Albany, N. Y., writes: "For several years I have suffered from oft-recurring billous headaches, dyspepsia and complaints peculiar to my sex. Since using your Burdock Blood Bitters I am entirely relieved." Price $1.

"Cheek."

Fred Marsden's new play of the above title will be given next Monday night at the Academy with Mr. Roland Reed, the comedian as Dick Smythe, a reporter with the usual gall of the fraternity. "Cheek," when originally produced a week or so ago at Hooley's, Chicago, is said to have been a go. Marsden, the author, is also responsible for Joe Murphy's "Kerry Gow" and numerous of Lotta's pieces.

The St. Louis Dispatch says: "Fred Marsden's latest literary production, 'Cheek.' was presented at the Grand Opera house last night in the presence of a large audience, with Roland Reed in the character of Dick Smythe, and Jennie Yeamans as Nell. The plot of 'Cheek' is not surprisingly new, but its dialogue is fresh, breezy and entertaining. Mr. Reed will be remembered here as a former attache of the old Olympic stock company, in which he personated the best of comic characters. He is a continuation of Raymond and Stuart Robson, and his comicalities find instant appreciation. It seems probable that Mr. Reed will have a thoroughly successful season, and he gives promise of great attractiveness as a star.

"Miss Jennie Yeamans, who played the colored girl in 'Fun on the Bristol,' is a charm of this new combination. She is an excellent actress and has the rare power of sustaining a humorous role in the highest pitch. She is a reminder of Miss Emma Maddern, with a suggestion of Maggie Mitchell. The duets between herself and Roland Reed received successive encores last night and caught the audience with fervor and enthusiasm. Messrs. Whittaker, Cleary, Norman, Mrs. Pennoyer and Miss Agnes Herndon and the balance of the company deserve special commendation. Mr. Mortimer has gathered around him a very strong company, and the performance is thoroughly enjoyable. Everybody should see 'Cheek.'"

Made Crazy by the Telephone.

Yesterday an elderly Irishman, named Dennis Donovan, who has been in the city for sometime past, applied to Trustee Gaffney for admission to the poor house and an order was issued. Donovan came here from Washington, D. C., and is a victim of the telephone, which modern invention has made him crazy. His story is that some time ago, when in Salt Lake City, somebody drugged his coffee, and ever since, at intervals of a few minutes, he fancies a buzzing in his ears like unto the tinkle of a telephone bell. About every five minutes the fellow stops his conversation abruptly, puts his hand to his ear and sings out lustily two or three times, "Hello!" It is a rather funny type of insanity.

"Do boldly what you do at all." Boldly do we affirm that Kidney-Wort is the great remedy for liver, bowels and kidney diseases, rheumatism and piles vanish before it. The tonic effect of Kidney-Wort is produced by its cleansing and purifying action on the blood. Where there is a gravelly deposit in the urine, or milky, ropy urine from disordered kidneys, it always cures.

Hon. William Baxter was thrown from his buggy, near Richmond, on Saturday afternoon and considerably bruised, though it is thought he is not dangerously injured.

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" is everywhere acknowledged to be the standard remedy for female complaints and weaknesses. It is sold by all druggists.

Disease is an effect, not a cure. Its origin is within: its manifestations without. Hence, to cure the disease the cause must be removed, and in no other way can a cure be effected. WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE is established on just this principle. It realizes that of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a food and a restorer, and, by placing them in a healthy condition, drive disease and pain from the system.

For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs; for the distressing disorders of Women; for Malaria, and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of imposters, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.

Cherubusco News.

CHERUBUSCO, May 22, 1882.

Pete Kaler, of Columbia City, shone upon us Saturday.

Daniel Hughes, our present efficient constable, is a candidate for nomination as recorder on the republican ticket. Mr. Hughes is deserving of the position and needs the help it would afford very much; but, as he does not possess the requisite "barrel," his candidacy meets with little favor among the leaders, though he has many friends among the people.

John Brand is at Indianapolis this week attending grand lodge F. & A. M. W. A. Geiger attended grand lodge I. O. O. F. last week.

D. W Nickey is talked of among republican friends to try the race with Jim Harrison for dispenser of marriage licenses the coming four years. Mr. Nickey is very popular in this township and well known through the county. This, in the present state of affairs, while the "Whitley county crank" is loose, added to his well known means, would make him a strong candidate.

Fred S. Shoaff spent the Sabbath with Dr. W. A. Munger at Liberty Mills.

Bro. Iden is happy at last. Sunday he held forth in a schoolhouse somewhere near the classic banks of Eel river. The "would be rev." and his congregation were seen at an early hour winding their way out of town in a one horse buggy.

A 'BUSCO BOY.

Splendid Joke on His Wife.

Dave Goudy is one of the dryest jokers in the world, and he had just as soon play a joke on a member of his family as not. Dave's wife is a friend of his, and so she is subject to his jokes. She hates Indians, and always locks the door when she sees the beggars who camp around Beaver Dam coming toward the house. Dave knew this, so he hired an Indian to go up to the house and get in with the pass key, and beg a pair of Dave's old pants of the good wife, which she would gladly give to get rid of him, and then offered the Indian half a dollar if he would go right into the parlor and put the pants on. Dave thought it would be a splendid joke on his wife, and he got a drug store man named Griffis to go along with him and watch the fun from a distance. The Indian got in the house and when he asked for the pants the good lady saw through the joke and she gave him Dave's Sunday pants, and he went into the parlor and was going to put them on. This was too much for her, and she went into the kitchen and got a dipper of hot water. Nobody knows exactly what occurred, but Dave and Griffis suddenly saw an Indian coming out of the front door, with one leg in a pair of deeskin and the other pants leg dangling in the air, and the Indian yelled as though he was in pain, and he pulled for the camp up the lake about six miles. As he passed the two gentlemen, the Indian said: "Squaw heap spunky. Ugh! Hot water," and he was gone. Dave went home and asked what the news was, and found that he was out a pair of Sunday pants, in the pocket of which was $12 in money, and his wife says that when he wants to send his friends up to the house for any more pants to do so by all means. She will be at home.—Beaver Dam Argus.

"Scratchin' for It."

"Uncle Pomp," said Colonel M. to a former slave, "I heard that some of you darkies down on the lower place are afflicted with the itch."

"Bein' as it's you, boss," replied old Pompey, hesitatingly, "I must confess dat de Lawd has seen fit to affick us dat way for a fac."

"Ah! Doing anything for it?"

"Yes, sah; oh, yes, sah."

"What?"

"Why, we—er—we am scratchin'."
